Be Fit Basics: Broccoli Cauliflower Parmesan Pasta
Adapted from 101cookbooks.com

1 small head of broccoli, cut into florets
1 small head of cauliflower, cut into florets
4 tbsp olive oil, divided
½ tsp kosher salt
2 small yellow onions, cut in half and sliced lengthwise into strips
4 cloves of garlic, minced
Pinch of red chili flakes
1 pound whole wheat pasta, such as penne (white pasta can be used if whole wheat is unavailable)
¾ cup freshly grated parmesan cheese
½ cup pine nuts, lightly toasted, if desired (see note)

Instructions:
Place the broccoli and cauliflower florets in a sheet pan or baking dish and toss with 2 tbsp olive oil and salt and bake at 425 degrees for 25-35 minutes, or until golden and tender.

Sauté the onions with remaining 2 tbsp of olive oil in a large sauté pan on medium heat until they soften; add the garlic and red chili flakes and cook 1-2 minutes more, until garlic is lightly browned (be careful not to let the garlic burn or it will taste bitter).

Cook the pasta until al dente; strain the pasta, reserving about ½ cup of the water. Pour the pasta back into its cooking pot and place on low heat; add the water and roasted vegetables. Stir to combine ingredients. Toss with parmesan and pine nuts.

Note:
- To toast the pine nuts, place them in an ungreased sauté pan on medium heat until they turn golden brown (this should only take a few minutes).
